

CHRISTINE E. YOROZU

Commissioner Yorozu was appointed to the Public Disclosure Commission by Governor Gary Locke on July 28, 1999.

Ms. Yorozu has extensive experience in state and local government. She is a former Communications Director for the Washington State Department of General Administration, Public Relations Director for the Washington State Lottery and provided program and personnel services to the King County Department of Transportation.

She has served as agency spokesperson, coordinated legislative activities, and developed, managed and coordinated statewide communications programs.

She has also worked as a legislative coordinator for the Secretary of State, as caucus staff member with the Washington State House of Representatives and has been involved in statewide initiative and candidate election campaigns.

Ms. Yorozu attended Highline Community College and the University of Washington. She is active in the community, having served as a board member of the Asian Counseling and Referral Service. She currently serves on the Nikkei Concerns Board of Directors in Seattle.

TERM SUMMARY

CURRENT APPOINTMENT: July 28, 1999, by Governor Locke

SENATE CONFIRMATION: Pending

TERM ENDS: December 31, 2002